Harvest Festival

Sunday 21st October 2012 – St. John the Divine Church Outwood Common

We will be having a Harvest Festival Parade again this year at St. John's Church at Outwood Common, which will be on Sunday 21st October.

In preparation for this please would you bring, as soon as possible, to the scout hall any dry, non-perishable, foods (canned foods, rice and pasta, biscuits, that sort of thing) you are able to donate to charity, and we will store them until the day of the parade.

Then during the parade we can have an area at the front of the church where we can have all of our donations on display. The more we can donate as a group the better!

On the day of the parade it would be good if as many of the cubs as possible could be there (and of course their families are welcome too), but even if you're not sure you'll be able to make the parade we would really appreciate it if you could make a donation.

Thanks in advance for your generosity!
