On Friday 26th of March Scouts enjoyed themselves by going to a 70s disco organised by the Patrol Leaders, with a guest appearance by the 'Village People'. People dressed up in 70's outfits and came to the disco with a friend. People got their dancing shoes on and danced to the rhythm with two dance competitions. The prize for winning the competition was 100 points for your patrol and a pass to the VIP area!!! I won one of the dance competitions and Joseph the second one. There were also many other competitions with the VIP room getting packed to the limit. Over 1000 points were won for some patrols.

All in all the night was a complete success with all members of 'Village People' (the Patrol Leaders in fancy dress) showing up!!!!!! The disco was enjoyed by many many people with also special thanks to Ian, Claire, Matt, Gareth and all of the Patrol Leaders for organising this unforgettable event. There was also special guests who came along to the night, not just scouts but friends of the Scouts, who also thought the night was a big success. All of the costumes were fantastic and a big congratulations to all people who got into the VIP room.

Some of the dances Were amazing we had the robot conga line everything you could think of and once again a very big thanks to Ian Claire the patrol leaders and everyone who came to make this disco a success.
